What Is Spring Creek Festival?

Spring Creek Festival is the most comprehensive, multifaceted festival that connects education to industry in the areas of multimedia storytelling, digital content, broadcast journalism, film, production and photography. Spring Creek Festival prides itself on delivering actionable results to the festival participants through competition, workshops, College and Career Exposition, networking opportunities, and so much more.

Multimedia storytellers and digital content creators are the nexus of every community, and Spring Creek Festival recognizes that in order to build a strong pathway we must invest in the beginning of the pathway in education. It is the goal of the festival to provide professional level multimedia equipment to educational programs and student artists.

And one of the most important aspects of the Spring Creek Festival is our award ceremony and prize giveaways.

We look forward to building and strengthening our relationships and growing together to create pathways. Please see below opportunities for involvement and sponsorship.
